MRS. SYMES AND MISS HAYS

HONORED BY MRS. EDINGTON

Mrs. John Foster Symes, of Denver, who as Miss Cynthia Edington, was one of Memphis' most popular society girls, and Miss Mildred Hays, whose marriage to Mr. Belhel Edington early in March will be one of the notable spring nuptials, were the honorees at an unusually attractive affair on Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. John Frie Edington entertained at luncheon at the Hotel Gayoso.

This was the second time this week that Mrs. Edington had extended her gracious hospitality to 25 guests, those present on this occasion being limited to the special friends of the honorees among the debutantes and in the younger married set.

A most artistic French color motif in pink and blue was effectively used in the ornamentation of the table, where the guests were seated to enjoy the delicious springtime menu. Spring flowers, frezias, sweetpeas, narcissus and asters, with beautiful Columbia roses, were arranged in a large French ivory basket, caught with a blue bow, around which were blossoming pink begonias, forming an exquisite floral centerpiece, while four smaller French baskets of spring flowers alternated with silver candlesticks holding pink tapers, which glowed softly through blue silken shades.

For the afternoon Mrs. Edington was beautifully gowned in rose pink chiffon and wore a hat with a black picture hat. Mrs. Symes was lovely in a French frock of chardon duval and wore a hat with a gold lace crown, and Miss Hays was charmingly gowned in blue, garnished with ribbon and tulle, with a hat to match.

Here and There

The Rev. Marcus Berndt, who served as pastor of the Redeemer Lutheran church during the past five months, during which he made many Memphis friends, has gone to St. Louis to resume his studies at the Concordia seminary.

Miss Amy Thompson will leave shortly for a Southern trip and will spend the Mardi Gras season in New Orleans as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Russell Beane.

A. D. Armstrong, who has been quite ill for some days, is reported Tuesday as much-improved.

Mrs. Lucille Cooke, who underwent a serious operation last week at the Baptist hospital, is recovering nicely.

E. C. Denaux has returned from the East, where he has been for the past three weeks.

Mrs. John A. Mentzel, of Tupelo, Miss., is the guest of Mrs. William Devine, 281 Kepple place.

Mrs. J. W. Cutler, of Clarksdale, Miss., spent Monday in the city.

Miss Jewett Swift, who is having a delightful stay in New York under the chaperonage of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thompson, will visit in Columbia, Ga., as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. M. K. Swift, who is the guest of Mrs. James Shorter, before her return to participate in the affairs of the spring season.

Mrs. J. B. McNamara, of Nashville, is the guest of Sister Selectine, who is her sister, at St. Joseph's hospital. Mr. McNamara, who was cashier of the federal reserve bank in Nashville, left Monday, after having spent Sunday here.

CORINTH GIRL, 5, IS BURNED TO DEATH

CORINTH, Miss., Jan. 27. (SPL.)—Myrtle, the little 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Barnes, who live six miles north of Corinth, suffered a horrible death Sunday night. The little girl, with other small children, was left at the house about 6 o'clock when the parents went to the barn to see about the milking and looking after feeding the stock.

The child undertook to reach something on the mantle before an open fireplace, when its dress was ignited by the fire. Screams of the burning child brought the parents to the house at once, but when they arrived every shred of clothing was burned from its body except the shoes and stockings.

TO SHOW "THE STORY OF COAL" IN MOVIES

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 27.—The National Coal association's picture, "The story of coal," in three reels, which has been filmed by the bureau of mines, will be one of the features of the meeting of the Southern Appalachian and Associated Coal Operators here Friday, Jan. 29, the meeting having been changed from Louisville, Ky., as originally planned.

CINEMA OF CRIME REFLECTED UPON POLICE BLOTTER

The Fowl Fanciers' association must have worked overtime Monday night, from the report which Mrs. Cordell, 1086 Decatur street, made to police Tuesday. She said that 50 of her chickens were missing from her henhouse.

When the Humphrey grocery, Linden avenue and Walnut street, hired a negro boy named Joe Heasley as messenger, the grocer was sure of a fast job. Joe proved even faster than had been dreamed of, for Tuesday morning he reported that Joe had gone so fast he had vanished, and with him went $10 of the firm's money and his bicycle.

A jewelry worth $2,100 stolen recently in Umba, S. C., is being sought here by detectives, who are attracted to the case because of a reward of $200 has been hung up by the owner, and in information received by Detective Jake Gwaltney, W. Richardson, chief of police.

her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Botten, who formerly Talbot avenue, Mrs. Lydia of Mount Vernon, Ind., is in the city with her youngest daughter, Mrs. Landreth had not heard of daughter for some time, and with Mrs. Maria Walstron, while police at Botten.

Zellner's Clearance Sale

When Zellner's buys a line of shoes, sixty to seventy-five different sizes are included to make the line complete. This applies to Men's, Women's and Children's Shoes. Each lot, therefore, before finally disposed of, becomes broken in sizes, and with the rapidly changing styles broken lots are sacrificed while the style is still good, so that the customer who can take advantage of this opportunity is to be congratulated—yet this clearance enables us to keep the new lots coming in fresh and complete. We feel, therefore, that the advantage is mutual, for it gives our customers the opportunity to secure shoes at very low prices. Included in the reductions are—

Banister Shoes for Men at $13.50 to $14. Other Shoes for Men at $10.37 and $3.50. For Women at $10.37, $8.47, $6.57 and $4.47. For Children at correspondingly low prices. Hosiery, too, has been included in the clearance.

All service and courtesies extended by Zellner's are continued during clearance as at all other times.

THOUSANDS OF TONS OF POTATOES ARE HELD

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 27.—Investigation conducted by the United States department of justice has disclosed that thousands of tons of potatoes are held at Yakima, Wash., and at points near Seattle by growers who are waiting for higher prices, according to an announcement by United States District Attorney Moore here tonight.

No steps can be taken against the growers, Mr. Moore said, as the Lever food control act expressly exempts them from its provisions. Potatoes are listed to dealers at $100 a ton here.
